Re: Appeal No. 2010-0325
Request No. 09-3141
SRO:SKV

Dear Mr. Thomas:

You appealed from the action of the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (EOUSA) on your request for access to an immunity agreement between a named third party and the Department of Justice.

After carefully considering your appeal, I am affirming EOUSA's action on your request. Please be advised that EOUSA did not conduct a search for the requested records. To the extent that such records exist, without consent, proof of death, official acknowledgment of an investigation, or an overriding public interest, disclosure of law enforcement records concerning an individual would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), (7)(C).

As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:
